Proudly presents a clinic with

Sally Cousins

October 27 & 28, 2018,

Ayer Mountain Farm, 55 Ayer Road, North Franklin, CT 06254

Based in Oxford, Pennsylvania, Sally Cousins has been a staple on the eventing circuit for more than 20 years. She was the USEA Leading Lady Rider of the Year for six consecutive years from 2008 to 2013 and has competed at the world's premiere events, including Badminton, Burghley, and Rolex Kentucky. While Sally stays extremely busy competing, when she is not riding she can be found teaching both at her farm and neighboring facilities. Learn more on her website.

Sally will be offering class sizes of 4 or fewer riders for 1.5 hours a session. She will be offering both stadium and cross-country sessions at levels from ground poles to Novice.

To get the most benefit from the clinic it is suggested that you participate both days; starting with Stadium Jumping and then Cross Country. However, Sally is flexible on the format and both phases will be offered on Saturday and Sunday. 😊
